Parents Evenings

These are an opportunity for parents/carers to meet with subject teachers of a student to discuss their progress, ask questions and discuss any concerns.

Tutor Evenings

These are held for Years 7 & 12 in the first term for parents/carers to meet with Tutors of students to discuss how they have settled into the year.

Learning Review Day

This day, at the half way point in the academic year, provides an opportunity for parents/carers to discuss with tutors overall academic progress.

Online Booking System

The College uses an automated booking system which allows parents/carers to choose their appointment times (subject to availability). Parents/carers will be notified when the booking system will be available for each event.

You can access the system via the College web site or:
